

The Endocrinology and Diabetes department provides a comprehensive multidisciplinary service to people living with Diabetes across the Sunshine Coast.

For more information contact:

Diabetes Centre
5436 8984

Diabetes Clinic
for Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people
Caloundra Hospital

- Every 2nd Tuesday
Aboriginal Health Worker and Credentialed Diabetes Educator
- Every 4th Tuesday
Endocrinologist/Diabetes Specialist

The Diabetes Service provides the following services – but it may be on a different day to your appointment.

- Diabetes Clinics
- Young Adult Diabetes Clinics
- Diabetes in Pregnancy Clinic
- Acute Diabetes Foot management
- Insulin Pumps / Continuous Glucose Monitoring Systems
- Dietitian
- Psychologist
- Inpatient Diabetes Management
- Specialist Endocrinology Services

Please note:

- ages from 18yrs old and above
- bring your blood sugar book and machine to be checked
- have your HbA1c (3 month average sugar level) checked
- dates and times may be subject to change at short notice

The Diabetes Clinic is in partnership with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Team – Preventable Hospitalisation Program.

For appointment:

Ask your GP or health specialist for a referral.

Email or fax completed referral to:

Sc-scuH-acc-referrals@health.qld.gov.au

Fax: 5202 0555