About us

North Coast Aboriginal Corporation for Community Health (NCACCH) is a well-established Not-for-Profit organisation located in Birtinya. An innovative leader, NCACCH is the only recognised Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (ACCHO) servicing the Sunshine Coast and Gympie regions. We provide a range of services and programs through our hybrid Brokerage and Aboriginal Medical Service (AMS) models of health service delivery.

Our Vision: To improve the health and wellbeing of our community through the provision of culturally safe, responsive and inclusive services.

Why work with us?

- No regular weekend work or evening shifts! The practice is open Monday to Friday. Get your work-life balance back!
- Competitive remuneration package, including salary packaging available
- Friendly, passionate & experienced multi-disciplinary team inclusive of Registered Nurses, Aboriginal Health Worker, Transport Officer, Practice Manager and administrative support.
- Strong relationships with key stakeholders including Sunshine Coast Hospital and health Service, Country to Coast (PHN) and numerous local organisations.
- Integrated Team Care (ITC) program supporting clients with Chronic Disease Management.

The Position

Joining our fast-growing AMS, you will form part of a small team of health professionals providing comprehensive primary health care services to our Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander patients and their families. Within the operational framework of an ACCHO service, the General Practitioner will work closely with the Senior Medical Officer and Practice Manager to offer high quality health care and foster a culture of organisational reflection and continuous quality improvement.

Qualifications/Experience

Essential

- Specialist GP recognition/vocational registration
- MBBS and unconditional registration with the Medical Board of Australia
- AHPRA Registration (unrestricted)
- Minimum three years' post graduate experience in a primary care setting or similar
- Eligibility to obtain provider number/s in the required location/s
- Demonstrated clinical experience, in particular the ability to contribute to and support a medical/primary health care team and contribute to effectively planning and coordinating own and health team's workload to achieve results
- Demonstrated ability to empathise, work and communicate sensitively and effectively with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

As a corporation we celebrate diversity and welcome all people regardless of ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.
